FROM THE FAMILY

We made it through 2024! I hope you had a wonderful holiday season and are enjoying these cold winter months. We're not what you'd call a winter loving family, but we do love how the Rocky Mountains look with a couple feet of snow. Sledding and maybe a little snowboarding is the most excitement you'll see from this Kissee family during the colder months.

We are hopeful the weather will be good for our amazing truck drivers who do a great job month after month.

Mckayla turned 16 in November and is doing a great job learning how to drive with yours truly in the passenger seat. She drove me all the way down to St. George, UT for my half marathon. I only had a few white knuckle moments and we arrived without a scratch!

William is now 12 and loves everything Star Wars and Lord of the Rings. He's enjoying taking karate classes and is learning discipline which makes mom and dad happy.

Thank you for a wonderful 2024 and we look forward to a great 2025.

Sincerely,

Joshua Kissee

Smaller berries.

GF 5 lb. bag
#1218....$23.99

In large bowl, whisk together the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Add the cubed butter. Using your fingers, work the butter into the flour until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add the frozen berries and mix to combine. In small bowl, whisk together the heavy cream, egg and vanilla. Add the cream to the flour mixture and mix just until moistened. Turn the dough out onto a lightly floured surface and shape into an 8-inch disc. Cut into 8 wedges. Transfer to a parchment-lined baking sheet allowing 2-inches between each scone. Refrigerate for 15 minutes. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 400°F. Bake chilled scones for 15-20 minutes or until lightly golden brown. Allow scones to cool 10 minutes before adding icing. In small bowl, whisk together the powdered sugar and lemon juice. Drizzle over the cooled scones.

Studies show that 8 out of 10 people aren't eating enough fruit.
